FOREWORD

This report presents summary data on Department of Defense military prime contract awards over $10,000 by Service Category and Federal Supply Classification, for fiscal years 1976, 1977, 1978, and 1979.

Data by Service Category and Federal Supply Classification are presented in three sections:

SECTION A covers awards for research, development, test, and evaluation work (RDT&E). The RDT&E categories used are the standard Department of Defense Claimant Programs. These procurement program definitions are identical with those prescribed for use in the Defense Materials System. Each category of RDT&E work has been divided into four kinds of RDT&E work, as described in the Defense Acquisition Regulation 4-101.

SECTION B covers other services and construction. Due to a change in the service code structure in fiscal year 1979, Section B has been printed in two parts. Part I contains the codes for fiscal year 1979 which were revised to coincide with the guidelines established by the Federal Procurement Data System. Part II contains the codes for fiscal years 1976 through 1978 printed in the format which appeared in previous editions of this manual. The major divisions and classes in Parts I and II were developed specifically for prime contract reporting and are considered to be self explanatory.

SECTION C covers the federal supply classification structure composed of 74 groups and approximately 585 individual classes. This system was developed primarily for supply management of items known to be in the supply system of the Federal government. Definitions of the classes appear in the Cataloging Handbook, Federal Supply Classification, Part 1, "Groups and Classes," H2-1, which may be purchased from the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, DC 20402.

While there is comparability between the Federal Supply Classes used in this publication and the Standard Industrial Product Codes used by the Census Bureau of the Department of Commerce, the exact points of agreement and disagreement have not been ascertained. Moreover, it should be observed that in many of the Census reports, the SIC data are based on the principal product of an establishment rather than on the individual products produced by that establishment. In addition to differences in code content, data from this pamphlet and certain Bureau of the Census reports do not coincide as to period covered or as to point in time when reported. The former are fiscal year figures measuring contract awards before delivery has taken place, while the latter are calendar-year figures measuring shipments or production which may take place several years after the contract award.

The following characteristics of the material presented in this pamphlet should be noted:

1. Data cover only prime contracts (those placed directly by the Department of Defense) and do not reflect the large amounts of subcontracts for basic and intermediate materials and components. Thus, for example, most of the steel plates for ships is purchased by Defense prime contractors, and only a small portion is obtained by direct DoD purchase (see Code 9515). Similarly, a large dollar amount of electronics is purchased by Defense contractors who have received prime contracts for missiles and other weapons systems.
2. Product and service information on procurement actions of $10,000 or less are not collected and, therefore, not provided in this report. In each of the fiscal years, 1976 through 1979, these small transactions totaled from $5 to more than $6 billion. This limitation tends to underestimate procurement of commercial type items and services more than military hard good items which usually are bought in large dollar amounts. It is known, for example, that Subsistence (FSC Group 89) is severely understated for this reason. However, information concerning the composition of the small purchases is not sufficient to identify all the categories of commodities and services which are affected to an important degree.
3. For security reasons, various contracts have been reported with a classification other than the one describing the item purchased. Therefore, data for a number of the Federal Supply Classes shown are incomplete.
4. The data which categorize contract awards by Service Category and Federal Supply Classification include awards to all types of contractors. In this respect, the coverage differs from other reports published by this office which provide such information only with respect to awards to business firms for work in the United States.

NOTE: Beginning with fiscal year 1977 the fiscal year period changed from July-June to October-September; therefore, fiscal year 1976 covered the period of July 1975-June 1976, and fiscal year 1977 covered October 1976-September 1977. Data by Service Category and Federal Supply Class were not compiled for the transition period of July-September 1976.

HIGHLIGHTS

Military prime contract awards in fiscal year 1979 totaled $69,348 million. This is $4,199 million, or 6.4 percent, more than in fiscal year 1978. As shown in the following table, awards to educational and nonprofit institutions increased by $107 million, or 9.8 percent. Awards to business firms showed the largest dollar increase of $4,416 million; however, the percentage of change was only 8.4 percent. Intragovernmental awards and awards for work outside the United States decreased by 3.0 and 3.3 percentage points, respectively. The percentage of distribution by type of contractor remained virtually unchanged from 1978 with a one-percentage point shift between awards to business firms in the U.S. and intragovernmental awards.

Of the awards over $10,000, the following table provides data by type of effort and shows that awards for RDT&E work decreased by $140 million, or 1.6 percent, while awards for other services and construction increased by $2,220 million, or 15.6 percent, and for supplies and equipment by $1,590 million, or 4.3 percent. However, the percentage distribution among these principal types of effort changed little.

SECTION A - Research, Development, Test, and Evaluation

Within the RDT&E category (see Section A, page 2), awards for research increased by $58 million, or 18.0 percent, decreased for exploratory development by $53 million, or 6.8 percent, decreased for other development by $568 million, or 8.2 percent, and increased for management and support by $424 million, or 61.9 percent. The percentage of distribution among these types of RDT&E work remained unchanged for research and exploratory development, decreased by 5 percentage points for other development, and increased by 5 percentage points for management and support. In fiscal year 1979, research accounted for 4 percent; exploratory development, 9 percent; other development, 74 percent; and management and support, 13 percent.

The following series of tables show fiscal year 1978 and 1979 comparisons by selected subcategories within the major types of effort.

RDT&E CLAIMANT PROGRAM

PROGRAM	FISCAL YEAR		CHANGE

All Other	85	79	6-	7.1-

A comparison of the above RDT&E claimant programs for fiscal years 1978 and 1979 shows that the largest percentage increases were for ammunition, $49 million or 48.5 percent; weapons, $70 million or 34.5 percent; and ships, $47 million or 18.9 percent. The most significant decreases were recorded for tank-automotive, $392 million or 76.9 percent and aircraft, $325 million or 19.8 percent.

SECTION B - Other Services and Construction Elements with Changes of $100 Million or More

The coding structure for other services and construction was changed in fiscal year 1979 and now includes codes which more specifically identify the services performed.

Three new categories encompassing natural resources management, social services, and quality control services were added. Category "W", which previously contained codes for all lease and rental services, was divided into categories separately identifying equipment and facilities. A comparison of previously existing categories with comparable fiscal year 1979 categories shows that the two services which experienced the most significant increases were professional, technical, and management services with an increase of $1,094 million or 67 percent and construction with an increase of $947 million or 50 percent reversing its trend from fiscal year 1978 when it showed a decrease of $211 million or 10 percent. Categories for travel, training, and equipment modification showed substantial decreases in fiscal year 1979 (see Section B, pages 3 and 19).

SECTION C - Federal Supply Groups with Changes of $100 Million or More

Federal Supply Group 34 (Metalworking Machinery) showed the largest percentage increase in fiscal year 1979, $195 million or 244 percent, while in fiscal year 1978 its dollar increase was only $33 million. Group 66 (Instruments and Laboratory Equipment) showed a gain of 29 percent in fiscal year 1979 in contrast to a decrease of 19 percent in fiscal year 1978. Group 44 (Furnace, Steam Plant, Drying Equipment, and Nuclear Reactors) which experienced the largest percentage decrease in fiscal year 1979, $153 million or 32 percent,
